UPCOMING ANNIVERSARY

David and Myra Bradley

August 5, 2002

Love's Philosophy

It was love that brought the two of you each step along the way
To the wonderful occasion of your anniversary day.
It was love that made you promise all the tenderness and care that make a perfect marriage and a world of joy to share,
And so may love go with you, growing deeper through the years,
Still truer and more meaningful each time your day appears!
