"Sonny I enjoyed your program. I remember the CCC program quite well."

Civilian Conservation Corps Responsible For Most of Our State and National Parks

Sonny Geer had the program last week. He spoke on the National Recovery Act passed during the Great Depression...specifically the Civilian Conservation Corps--the division of the NRA that was charged with building parks and national highways for America during the depression. The program is in two parts. During Part I of the program Sonny showed a video that concentrated on the History of the NRA during the Roosevelt Administration. Part II is the other half of the video. Sonny said, "The CCC workers left us a legacy that has lasted for 75 years and will probably last as long as our nation endures."

"Folks, your dues statement this time is a hefty one. Some of you might have to take out a loan from Rotary International."
