

The perfect employee

There is no better worker for world understanding than The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International. It never takes a sick day or a vacation. It never worries about staying late; it works around the clock. Divide what it accomplishes around the world through its many different programs by the number of days in a year, and you can see how hard it works.

The Rotary Foundation deserves a raise. Let's show our appreciation and make a contribution today.

Paul Harris Fellows: a mini-history

Within two years after Paul Harris died in 1947, fellow Rotarians contributed US$1.3 million to The Rotary Foundation in honor of their founder. This amount was nearly twice as much as The Foundation had received over the previous 30 years. The donations provided the financial support that enabled The Foundation to grant 18 Graduate Scholarships—its first significant International Service program.

Today, those who continue the tradition of honoring Paul Harris by contributing US$1,000—or for whom US$1,000 is donated in their honor or memory—are designated Paul Harris Fellows.

1992-93 Theme

What's the value of one member?

Ten little members standing in a line.
One disliked the president, then there were nine.
Nine ambitious members offered to work late.
One forgot her promise, then there were eight.
Eight creative members had ideas good as heaven.
One lost enthusiasm, then there were seven.
Seven loyal members got into a fix.
They quarreled over programs, and then there were six.
Six members remained with spirit and drive.
One moved away, then there were five.
Five steadfast members wished there were more.
One became indifferent, then there were four.
Four cheerful members who never disagree—
Til one complained of meetings, then there were three.
Three eager members! What do they do?
One got discouraged, then there were two.
Two lonely members, our rhyme is nearly done.
One joined the bridge club, then there was one.
One faithful member was feeling rather blue—
Met with a neighbor, then there were two.
Two earnest members, each enrolled one more—
Doubling their number, and then there were four.
Four determined members just couldn't wait—
Til each won another, and then there were eight!
Eight excited members signed up 16 more.
In another six verses, there'll be a thousand twenty-four!
