January is INTERNATIONAL SERVICE - ROTARY AWARENESS MONTH.
Chairwoman: Cecelia Ellis

PROGRAM THIS WEEK:

Debbie Goines has our program tonight on Health Care & Health Insurance.

PROGRAM NEXT WEEK:

Ken Gray is responsible.

PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

Sonny Geer was in charge of our program last week. Sonny introduced Terry, a full-time EMT of the Morehead Rescue Squad. Terry brought us up-to-date on the every day workings of the squad which has 4 full-time paid EMT's and 14 volunteers. Their goal for 1994 is to have a full-time staff 24 hours a day. He, also, explained their day to day operation as well as what training is necessary for each staff member

Our January 7th meeting was called to order by President David Bradley. Paul Boone led us in prayer and the pledge was led by Bobby Whaley. Dick Rogers led us in the singing of "AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL" and "SING ROTARIANS".

HAPPY DOLLARS were collected by Bill Ryan. Our 1992-93 Goal is $1,450. - an average of $30 to $35 per week. We have all supported this the first half and our continued efforts are still needed.

Jim Chalk reported that the Club received a check for $983.57 from the Seafood Festival for our help in the beverage booths.

VISITING ROTARIAN LAST WEEK was acknowledged by Secretary Marty as follows:

Eloise Blair from Beaufort Ole Towne Club.

LAST WEEK'S GUESTS:

Win Chalk, son of Jim Chalk.

Has everyone noticed the billboard (located at Lowe's) with the 4 WAY TEST? Our THANKS go to Bob Howard for accomplishing this for our CLUB.
