PROGRAM THIS WEEK:

Jim Garner has our program tonight.

PROGRAM NEXT WEEK:

Curtis Fleshman will be in charge of the program on Feb. 4

PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

Valerie David, an exchange student attending West Carteret from Leone, France was our guest speaker. Ms. David is a senior and has been in Carteret County about 6 months. She is presently staying with the David Horton Family. Thanks to Ken Gray for having Valerie visit with us again. Valerie enlightened us by sharing her experiences since she has been here, as well as, with a slide show of her native land concentrating on her hometown and the surrounding areas. Valerie thanked the Rotary Club for giving her the opportunity for being here. President David and Valerie exchanged banners from the two clubs.

President David Bradley called our meeting to order last week. Paul Boone led in our opening prayer and the pledge was led by Russ Outlaw. Songs "AMERICA" and "VIVE le ROTARY" were led by Stanley Harrell.

President David read Craven Brooks name for membership in our club. Mr. Brooks will be coming from the Kinston Club. If there is no written or oral objection received within 10 days, he will be invited into our Club membership.

President David also read a letter from Bill Ward who has tendered his resignation due to personal reasons.

VISITING ROTARIANS LAST WEEK was acknowledged by Secretary Marty as follows:

Craven Brooks from the Kinston Noon Club.
Leon Murdoch of the Morehead City Noon Club.
Don Yennie from the Outlook Club.
Chet Jarman of the Morehead City Noon Club.
Beverly Robbins from the Newport Club.

LAST WEEK'S GUESTS:
