ROTARY CLUB OF MOREHEAD CITY
THURSDAY, July 16, 1992

Bill Ryan, President Elect, will present the program tonight.

President David Bradley, presided at our 7-9-92 meeting. Jim Chalk gave the invocation. Dick Rogers led us in the pledge. Curt Fleishman led us in singing "Working on the Railroad" and "Sing Rotarians". Secretary Marty Hedgepeth introduced our visiting Rotarians who were as follows:

John Davis from the Newport Club.
Carlo Colowbini from Albemarle County, Va.
(Carlo is a Wine Maker. He was presented with a banner to be carried back to his Club.)

The Secretary concluded with reporting that we had a total of 59 current members. Our June attendance was recorded at 77.5%.

President David Bradley reminded us that we now have banners available if anyone is visiting another Club.

Bill Ward collected "HAPPY DOLLARS". Our weekly goal was surpassed.

Bill Ward gave a brief report on the upcoming KING MACKEREL TOURNAMENT. Available NOW are shirts at $12.00 each and tickets for the FISH FRY to be held Saturday, July 25th from 6p.m. - 8p.m. at the "Kathryn Davis City Park. It was suggested that each Rotarian sell or buy 3 tickets at $5.00 each.

President David Bradley ask that Bob Ryan, Community Service Chairman, have 3 Community Chairmen report on 1992 - '93 upcoming projects. Bob called upon Gordon Thayer, Environmental; Albert Gaskill, RYLA - ROTARY YOUTH LEADERSHIP; and CLEM WILLIAMS, Literacy, for reports.

Cecelia Ellis, International Service Chairman, reported on our sponsored French exchange student. She informed us where and whom she will be staying with and ask that we give her our support.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BEGINS

Membership captains and their teams are urged to sit together during the club meeting this evening (a team roster is enclosed in case your forgot which team you're on.). Two 3x5 index cards have been provided for the team captain to write the names and addresses of prospective members. Dick Rogers will mail invitations to all prospective members to visit club on August 20.

Bob Ryan will have the program next week.
