Last Week

Mayor Jerry Jones and City Manager Ryan Eggleston

It was our club's honor to host Mayor Jerry Jones and City Manager Ryan Eggleston on May 31st. They gave an update of the state of our town: town staff was able to balance the budget with no tax increase – a budget that includes one million dollars of road work.

The completion of Katherine Davis Park at 601 Arendell is just one of MHC's successful projects. The park, former railroad property, was purchased from the state and occupies a central location on the waterfront. The purchase included thirteen additional boat slips to bring the total city-owned boat slips to eighty five.

Projects in the works include the completion of a feasibility study to renovate the old school on Bridges St and 12th to consolidate all town offices in one building.

With a twinkle in his eye, the Mayor described the discovery of the original MHC 1928 fire truck which has been purchased and may form the centerpiece of a new fire museum.

MHC's new City Manager, Ryan Eggleston, introduced himself and talked about his experience – over ten years as a city manager in western Pennsylvania. A graduate of Syracuse University, Ryan and his wife have five children. Ryan loves the job because he feels he can make a difference in people's lives. Welcome to MHC!

Happy Birthday!
