Credit Card Theft Is on the Rise - Check Your Account Daily for Unauthorized Charges

Last week Earl Lewis had the program. His guest speaker was Deputy Sheriff Phillip Morris. Deputy Morris presented a program on credit card theft. "Credit card fraud is one of the most simple and common forms of theft. It can happen to anyone no matter how careful or protective one tries to be when making purchases," said Sheriff Morris. "If you lose your credit card, it is important that you act quickly by notifying your card issuer. If you do this within 2 days, you are only responsible for $50 in charges after the notification. And of course, it is always best to notify your bank in writing, otherwise it might be difficult to prove that you actually alerted the bank. If you delay longer than two days, you could be responsible for charges up to $500."
