Sheree Beasley Extols the Virtues of Hemp

Previous guest speaker Sheree Beasley presented an informative talk on Carolina Hemp, its benefits and uses that only mother nature can produce. According to Beasley, in 2016, the NC General Assembly passed legislation allowing industrial hemp to be grown in the state once again after nearly 80 years of prohibition. The hemp plant can be refined into countless commercial items including paper, food, textiles, plastics, biofuel and other products. The reinstatement of hemp is a boon to Carolina farmers.
