Bill Colbert Says The Arts Are Alive and Well in Carteret County

Dick Rogers had the program last week. His guest speaker was Bill Colbert. Bill talked about his involvement in the arts during the 34 years he has lived in Carteret County. In addition to acting in many Carteret Community Theatre plays, he is heavily involved in the Carteret Arts Forum--a group that was originally organized and sponsored by Doris Buffet. Each year the Arts Forum brings first rate entertainment to Carteret County in the form of concerts, operatic singers, seminars, and magic shows. Bill said we are in for a real treat this year. The Arts Forum is bringing Gay Willis, one of our own, to sing some of the songs she sang on Broadway--songs from the Phantom of the Opera, Show Boat, and from other performances during her career in show business. This is one season you will not want to miss. See Bill for tickets.

Last week's guest speaker, Bill Colbert, had an opportunity to draw the Ace of Spades-but failed in the attempt.

Yard Sale Coming Up

The Rotary Board of Directors voted to have a yard sale to support the renovation of Purvis Chapel. Proceeds from the sale will be divided between Purvis Chapel and Rotary. The date for the sale has not been determined. Gerald Godette is heading up the project. It's time to begin collecting items for the sale.
