Cape Lookout High School Seeks to Renew Charter

Herb Phillips had the program last week. His guest speaker was Teresa Parker, Principal of Cape Lookout High School. Teresa recounted her efforts to convince the State Board of Education to renew the school's charter for this year. Teresa and her staff have kept the school open without official sanction by the state. Teresa and her supporters were so convinced that the charter would be renewed that they worked without pay for the past two months. Cape Lookout students have a strong advocates in the school staff.

Note: The State Board of Education renewed Cape Lookout's charter Tuesday for two years, thanks to Teresa's untiring efforts.
