Moi. An Actor?

Rick Johnson and His Twin Brother Starred In Walt Disney Movie Emile and The Detective

Jim Chalk had the program last week. His speaker was Rick Johnson, one of our own. Rick talked about the time he and his brother starred in a Walt Disney movie which was filmed in Germany when they were 12 years old.

Rick's mother answered an announcement in the newspaper which was posted by Disney Production seeking twin boys, age 12, to star in a movie being made in Germany. As luck would have it, Rick already lived in Germany. His mother's letter secured the boys an audition. They were so perfect for the part, they were chosen for the role. During his talk, Rick showed the movie in which they starred. The movie had lots of kids in it; and although there were many actors in the movie, Rick and his brother had major speaking roles...not cameo appearances. After the movie was shot, the twins went to Hollywood to dub their voices. Quite an experience for 12-year olds.

Rick credits his mother for securing the part of the twins for him and his brother. "She worked tirelessly on our behalf. She made it happen."

No, you are not seeing double. This is Rich Johnston and his twin brother--age 12--stars of Emile and the Detectives
