THE ROTARY BEACON
SPOTLIGHTS JIM PHILLIPS

This week The Rotary Beacon spotlights Jim Phillips. Jim has been a Rotarian for 20 years. He has served as president, board member, and chairman of various committees. Jim's latest assignment was chairman of the Sea-food Festival Fund Raiser which required all his organizational skills. Due to his hard work and perseverance, the fund raiser was a tremendous success.

The Rotary Beacon is proud to recognize Jim Phillips for his unique contributions to Rotary.

This Week's Program

David Bradley, who is substituting for John Nelson, will bring us the program tonight which will focus on health, hunger, and humanity. David will be assisted by Bill Mereness and Albert Gaskill. Bill will discuss three Rotary International's grant programs and Albert will bring us up-to-date on Polio Plus.

"I'm getting ready for the crepe supper. How do you like my chef's hat, mon ami?"

Absentee Rate
Drops Dramatically

"John Nelson's campaign to reduce the absentee rate seems to have caught on. The attendance last week was the highest it has been in months. However, last week doesn't count. November begins tonight. But now that we know you can do it, we expect 100% attendance for the rest of this month. Don't forget, John has promised that the Golden Corral will serve steak dinners if we meet our goal. Don't let me down!!"

WE MISSED YOU LAST WEEK!!!

Capps Presents Program On Rotary International

Our guest speaker last week was John Capps, member of the Morehead City Noon Club and Past Governor of District 7730.

John talked about the role Rotary plays on the world stage and how all of us can do our share by supporting the Rotary International projects by contributing to the Paul Harris Fellow Program. As part of his presentation, John showed a video prepared by R.I. which depicted Rotary in action helping people throughout the world.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

Congratulations Bill Horton on your election as Mayor of Morehead City and Calvin Wellons your election as councilman. Morehead is in good hands with Rotarians like Bill, Calvin and Sonny you running the city.

Welcome back Eldon Hoachlander. We've missed you.

TONIGHT IS PIN NIGHT--If you're not wearing your Rotary pin, it will cost you a dollar.

Bud Is an Inspiration

"Bud, I want to congratulate you on your attendance. You've hardly missed a meeting during the last two months. For that, I'll give a Happy Dollar and say on behalf of the club how glad we are to see you so often."

Dick Rogers, Saboo Girison and Curt Fleshman Discuss the Student Exchange Program--"Fellows, now that I've got you both together, I want to ask you a question. How do I get a high school diploma?"

David Hall Presents Saboo a Statement for Initiation into the Circle of Paul Harris Fellows --"Saboo, Give this to your host Dad, John Capps. Tell him you want to be a Paul Harris Fellow. John says everyone should be a Paul Harris Fellow."

"Shadrach, Are you and Bill Horton Paul Harris Fellows? Everybody should be one. Even Saboo is thinking about joining that elite group of Rotarians... just as soon as I get him a part-time job."

Bud Dixon and Saboo Girison, our exchange student from India, discuss the political climate in Morehead City. Saboo is thinking of running for prime minister of India sometime in the distant future. Saboo, you're talking to the master.

"I'll tell you, fellows, whenever I attend a Rotary meeting, I just mellow out."

Eldon Hoachlander is enjoying his first Rotary meeting after open heart surgery. Welcome back Eldon. We've missed you.

Ed Wilson, our guest from Durham, came the greatest distance to make up. Thanks for attending our club, Ed.

Harold Chartley, our guest from Newport, thinks we have a great club. We think your club is special too, Harold.

PANCAKE SUPPER

First United Methodist Church
November 18
5:30--8:00 PM
$4.00 Per Person

Bob Ryan, chairman of the Pancake Supper, is ready to flip some flapjacks. All he needs are some customers. That's where you come in. When you receive your tickets tonight, why not go ahead and buy them all. Treat the whole family. It's a cheap night out. If you have a small family, treat the neighbors. When all else fails, sell your tickets to strangers. They like pancakes too.
