Last Week

Dr. David Nateman informed us how the Carteret Community College Foundation seeks and secures private funds to support Carteret Community College. He outlined how the CCC Foundation supports student scholarships, provides funds for innovative faculty and staff projects, enhances professional development, and funds equipment and capital purchases. The Carteret Community College Foundation, Inc. is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit corporation. In closing he acknowledged the foundation exists to provide support and resources for the college to achieve its mission. Refer to the following website for more information about Carteret Community college's Foundation.

A card which, as the legend has it, was being left by the American troops during the Vietnam war on dead bodies of those whom they had killed. They were also used to scare away Viet Cong soldiers without firefights since the latter believed a spade, according to the Vietnamese tradition, to be a herald of death and ill-fortune. In Coppola's 'Apocalypse Now' one of the American soldiers (presumably played by Robert Duvall) throws such a card onto the lifeless body of some Vietnamese.

This Evening

President Dean will be talking about their Costa Rica Mission Team trip this past summer. Refer to the following website for detailed information.

God made beautiful wonderful best resource people. The most humble, They are easy to work with and eager to assist foreigners. They work side by side with the mission teams. They are eager to receive and follow our Lord Jesus Christ. Each one of them is a strong testimony for Christianity." - Kelly Hudson - Alabama

Costa Rica into a country with many natural resources. The is its most gracious village people were kind and giving.
