EVIDENCE OF A LIFE DEVOTED TO ROTARY

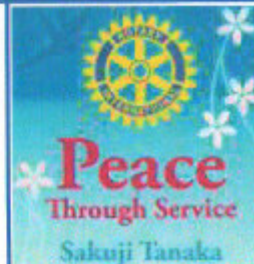

Two weeks ago Albert Gaskill's nephew was cleaning out Albert's house on Arendell Street and found these plaques which attested to his devotion to Rotary. Albert once said he only had time to belong to two organizations. "I am a member of the church and Rotary. If I belonged to more than one club, I could not do justice to either." After reading these plaques, it is easy to see where Albert concentrated his time and energy. Albert was an inspiration to all who knew him.
