A Second Look at Costa Rica Through The Eyes of a Morehead City Rotarian

Dean McDonald had the program last week. Instead of relying on a guest speaker, Dean spoke to the club about his missionary trip to Costa Rica sponsored by the First United Methodist Church. Dean showed a video of himself and 14 youth from the church constructing a building for a small village. The work was gruelling and the tropical heat was sweltering...but within two weeks, they had raised a fairly large building that will serve as a school for the local community.

In summing up his account of the trip, Dean said: "Costa Rica was a life changing experience. It was so inspiring that I plan to go back next year; and I would be remiss if I did not thank everyone who made this trip possible."

Happy Birthday, Stanley!
Every birthday holds the promise of a new beginning. Hope this is your best year ever.

Four Rotarians Who Worked the Seafoof Festival Coke Booth

It is my pleasure to introduce Dean McDonald, our speaker for tonight.

Welcome back from Spain Darden. How was your trip?
