Dean McDonald Presents Program on Church's Building Program in Costa Rica

A group of young people from the First Methodist Church volunteered their time to construct living quarters that will be used by future volunteers who donate their time and energy helping Costa Ricans improve their lot in life. Dean said the Costa Ricans are loving people and so hospitable you may never want to leave. Ticos, the name Costa Ricans have given themselves, will bend over backwards to make your stay an enjoyable one.
