Martha Bell, Executive Director, Martha's Mission

Martha's Mission Cupboard is an emergency food pantry staffed by volunteers to provide nutritious and balanced food supplies to individuals and families on a temporary basis. Martha Bell (not the namesake "Martha") oversees the non-profit which is run entirely by a group of approximately fifty volunteers. The food pantry serves from 3,500 to 4,000 families each year after a referral from Social Services.

Many groups in Carteret County help support the food pantry including local churches, community groups, Food Lion, Walmart, Lowes and Publix. Big Rock is also in the community support mix. Cash donations are used to purchase perishable food and toiletries, including diapers, totaling approximately $100,000 each year. The current fundraising drive – the 2019 Food-A-Thon – goes through December. Johnny presented a check from our club at the end of the meeting.
